

We Start With...

A two minute period of silence - a moment of peace.

From the Chair

Information for the Sea of Faith National Conference is now available at <http://www.sof.org.nz/2016confdata.pdf>

Held at the Silverstream Retreat Centre, it promises to be very much more comfortable than ‘conferences we have known’. You can find the registration document at the above address.

You do not have to be a member of SoF, nationally or locally, to attend the conference. Many SoFers consider it the highlight of their year.

July meeting: God is the Good We Do

This month and next Marjorie and Bruce Spittle will introduce two of the conference keynote speakers, their background and their thinking:

July: Prof Michael Benedikt

August: Rev Gretta Vosper

Michael Benedikt has written about Theopraxy, which he defines as ‘the practice of God.’ The word follows from the thesis that God is the good we do—and only the good we do.

Whether you plan to attend the conference or not, these two thinkers are well worth meeting in this way. We will undoubtedly hear more about their contributions after the conference.

Dr Najibullah Lafraie was to talk to us this month, but we have agreed with Najib that he will speak to us at our October meeting.
